“Live History” at Shenandoah on Saturday, August 25th

August 23, 2007 – Lake Frederick, VA – Shenandoah, a 55+ “active adult” community, is hosting “Live History” on the Civil War. This unique, historic demonstration will be presented by the “17th Virginia Company B” re-enactors group on Saturday, August 25th from 9 am to 3 pm at the community’s Model Village.

The local group will demonstrate what life was like as a soldier and as a civilian traveling with the military back in the Civil War days. From re-enacting battles to making candles, the ins and outs of everyday life during the Civil War will be presented. Unit Commander of the 17th Virginia Company B, Brandon McCrary, says, “We demonstrate the stuff they don’t teach you in history class.”

Men, women and children of all ages are welcome to attend the fun-filled day of learning within a beautiful setting in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, surrounded by Lake Frederick.

Shenandoah resident, and 17th Virginia Company B member, Jim Herendeen, says, “Our group is family-oriented. The more that show up, the merrier.”
